

Best Places to Take Children in Chicagoland Area

(Opinion) {Photo from www.adlerplanetarium.org}

- | | |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| <input type="checkbox"/> Maggie Daley Park- Children ages 2-12 | <input type="checkbox"/> Chicago's Children Museum- Children ages 3-11 |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Brookfield Zoo- Children ages 3-15 | <input type="checkbox"/> Shedd Aquarium- Children ages 4-13 |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Crown Fountain- Children ages 4-14 | <input type="checkbox"/> Museum of Science and Industry- Children ages 4-14 |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Lincoln Park Zoo- Children ages 4-14 | <input type="checkbox"/> Millennium Park- Children ages 4-15 |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Willis Tower- Children ages 4-15 | <input type="checkbox"/> Chicago Theater- Children ages 4-17 |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Cadillac Theater- Children ages 4-17 | <input type="checkbox"/> Cloud Gate- Children ages 5-17 |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Adler Planetarium- Children ages 5-17 | <input type="checkbox"/> Chicago History Museum- Children ages 5-17 |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Navy Pier- Children ages 5-17 | <input type="checkbox"/> The Chicago Riverwalk- Children ages 6-17 |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Field Museum of Natural History- Children ages 7-17 | <input type="checkbox"/> Art Institute of Chicago- Children ages 8-17 |