

How to Market Your Blog Post: 25 Actionable Tasks

Multiply the time it took to write your blog post by three, that's how much time you should spend marketing your new blog post. Save this step-by-step checklist and complete these 25 actionable tasks after launching each new blog post.

Social Media

- Day 1: Tweet your post title, link, and featured image w/ relevant hashtags.
- Day 2: Tweet a different title of your post, link, and featured image w/ relevant hashtags to see if you get more retweets.
- Day 3: Tweet 2 short snippets of different stats or quotes from your new post w/ a link, image and different relevant hashtags.
- Day 4: Tweet 2 short snippets of different stats or quotes from your new post w/ a link, image and different relevant hashtags.
- Day 5: Tweet 2 short snippets of different stats or quotes from your new post w/ a link, image and different relevant hashtags.
- Share your post on other social media pages like: FB, LinkedIn, Pinterest, etc
- Schedule automatic social media posts over the next few weeks or months. My favorite automated social media tools is Social Pilot <https://socialpilot.co>
- Tag or mention the influencers you mentioned in your post on social media.
- Use Buzzsumo to contact influencers who have shared similar content <https://buzzsumo.com>

Email

- Check that your post automatically went out to your email subscribers.
- Email influencers or brands you mentioned in your post so they share it.
- Email sources you mentioned in your post so they share or link to it.
- Email your co-workers and ask them to share your new post.

Links

- Edit previous popular articles and add links to your new post.
- Find broken links to similar content and alert the author about your new post as a potential replacement. The Broken Link Bible: <https://moz.com/blog/the-broken-link-building-bible>
- Use BuzzSumo to find people who have linked to similar content. <https://buzzsumo.com>
- Expand and elaborate on a specific area of your new post on Medium. Link to your new post so Medium readers can learn more about the topic.
- Expand and elaborate on a specific area your new post on LinkedIn. Link to your new post so LinkedIn readers can learn more about the topic.

Repurpose Your Content

- Publish a checklist on Checkli, and highlight important actionable items, stats, facts or details from your post. <https://www.checkli.com>
- Make and share a SlideShare presentation about your new content. - <https://slideshare.net>
- Make an infographic and visually highlight the important areas of your content. Share that infographic in multiple infographic directories: <https://goo.gl/LtxSCy>
- Record an audio copy of your post and add it to your blog.
- Discuss your blog post topic, research, and content in a new podcast.
- Make a Youtube video from your content and reach a massive new audience.

Commenting

- Respond to mentions on social media pages.
- Respond to all comments on your new blog post.
- Share your post in the comments section of relevant blog posts. DON'T SPAM!

Groups and Forums

- Share your post in relevant groups on LinkedIn.
- Share your post in relevant groups on Facebook.
- Search Quora for questions you can answer with the content of your blog post. <https://quora.com>
- Search and submit to Reddit. Don't be spammy and follow the rules of each Subreddit.