

London Bucketlist

- Visit Shakespeare's Globe theater
- Visit a Broadway show on the West End
- Pass by Buckingham Palace & see the Changing of the Guards
- Tour the London Tower Bridge exhibit
- Take part in London's Sunday Roast tradition in a local pub
- Visit Kensington Palace & Gardens
- Stop by the Westminster Abbey, where coronations and royal weddings take place
- Enjoy the view from St. Paul's Cathedral
- Order a true English breakfast, complete with eggs, beans, toast, and black sausage
- Bring a picnic to Hyde Park
- Shop various trinkets, flowers, food, and more at Camden Market, Columbia Road Market, Portobello Road Market, and Borough Market.
- Take a morning jog along the Thames River
- Harry Potter fans, visit Platform 9 and 3/4 at the station
- Take a boat out on the Serpentine in Hyde Park
- If visiting in the Wintertime, go ice skating at Somerset House
- Stroll by Big Ben, too, for the sake of cheesy tourism
- Afternoon tea at a snazzy hotel lounge or cafe
- Dive into some curry from a restaurant on Brick Lane

- Enjoy some vintage shopping in the trendy, up-and-coming Shoreditch neighborhood
- Don't hesitate to jump on a red double decker bus to get to your next stop
- Visit the Landmark Hotel's Winter Garden - a beautiful place to relax and catch up with friends
- Rent a bike to get around longer distances to do some site-seeing
- Check out the Egyptian mummies at the British Museum
- Get a lovely view of the city atop of Primrose Hill
- Visit the House of Parliament
- Capture the famous Beatles album cover on Abbey Road
- Don't hesitate to take Tube, but avoid rush hour (eek)
- Remember to try fish 'n chips off the menu!
- Snap a photo in front of a Red Telephone Booth (but be cautious of the stench inside - some smell like they've turned into bathrooms)
- Stop by the Tate Modern for a dose of Modern Art
- Catch a soccer game at Wembley Stadium
- Take a ride in a Black Cab (but beware of their steep prices)
- Play into the James Bond theme by ordering a Martini (shaken, not stirred, of course) at Duke's London Bar
- For a quick adventure, take a day trip to Oxford
- For the really adventurous folk, definitely head out into the picturesque English countryside
