London Bucketlist

| Visit Shakespeare's Globe theater |
|--|
| Visit a Broadway show on the West End |
| Pass by Buckingham Palace & see the Changing of the Guards |
| Tour the London Tower Bridge exhibit |
| Take part in London's Sunday Roast tradition in a local pub |
| Visit Kensington Palace & Gardens |
| Stop by the Westminster Abbey, where coronations and royal weddings take place |
| Enjoy the view from St. Paul's Cathedral |
| Order a true English breakfast, complete with eggs, beans, toast, and black sausage |
| Bring a picnic to Hyde Park |
| Shop various trinkets, flowers, food, and more at Camden Market, Columbia Road Market, Portobello Road Market, and Borough Market. |
| Take a morning jog along the Thames River |
| Harry Potter fans, visit Platform 9 and 3/4 at the station |
| Take a boat out on the Serpentine in Hyde Park |
| If visiting in the Wintertime, go ice skating at Somerset House |
| Stroll by Big Ben, too, for the sake of cheesy tourism |
| Afternoon tea at a snazzy hotel lounge or cafe |
| Dive into some curry from a restaurant on Brick Lane |

| Enjoy some vintage shopping in the trendy, up-and-coming Shoreditch neighborhood |
|---|
| Don't hesitate to jump on a red double decker bus to get to your next stop |
| Visit the Landmark Hotel's Winter Garden - a beautiful place to relax and catch up with friends |
| Rent a bike to get around longer distances to do some site-seeing |
| Check out the Egyptian mummies at the British Museum |
| Get a lovely view of the city atop of Primrose Hill |
| Visit the House of Parliament |
| Capture the famous Beatles album cover on Abbey Road |
| Don't hesitate to take Tube, but avoid rush hour (eek) |
| Remember to try fish 'n chips off the menu! |
| Snap a photo in front of a Red Telephone Booth (but be cautious of the stench inside - some smell like they've turned into bathrooms) |
| Stop by the Tate Modern for a dose of Modern Art |
| Catch a soccer game at Wembley Stadium |
| Take a ride in a Black Cab (but beware of their steep prices) |
| Play into the James Bond theme by ordering a Martini (shaken, not stirred, of course) at Duke's London Bar |
| For a quick adventure, take a day trip to Oxford |
| For the really adventurous folk, definitely head out into the picturesque Englis Make i and Share Free Checklists checkli.com |
