10 Thanksgiving Movie Classics

Here's a checklist of 10 Thanksgiving movies that you and your family should watch over Thanksgiving weekend. Thanksgiving movies are limited, but this list shouldn't disappoint. Enjoy!

- [ ] Planes, Trains & Automobiles - Classic comedy with John Candy and Steven Martin go through hell to get home in time for Thanksgiving.
- [ ] Dutch - Very funny movie about a road trip with Ed O'neill and his soon to be step son. (Al Bundy)
- [ ] A Charlie Brown Thanksgiving - Classic cartoon movie about the Peanuts crew during thanksgiving, usually airing on ABC.
- [ ] You've Got Mail - Who can forget when Tom Hanks saves Meg Ryan in the grocery store line on Thanksgiving.
- [ ] The Blind Side - Watch a young man, from broken home, eat Thanksgiving dinner with his new adopted family for the first time.
- [ ] Grumpy Old Men - has aHILARIOUS Thanksgiving scene that will make you long for some Turkey.
- [ ] The Ice Storm - a very interesting story about two neighboring families who get stuck together, over Thanksgiving weekend, during an Ice Storm.
- [ ] Funny People - with Adam Sandler, Jonah Hill, and Seth Rogan has one of the best "friendsgiving" awkward scene ever.
- [ ] Scent of a Woman - is a classic movie about a prep student taking care of a blind Army Lieutenant, that takes place over Thanksgiving weekend.
- [ ] Soul Food - is one of the best American movies ever, about food and family. A must watch over Thanksgiving.

Make and Share Free Checklists
checkli.com