Holiday Decor For Your Home

Plenty of ideas below for fun ways to decorate your home this season and spread the holiday cheer!

- [ ] Layer different greenery like pine, spruce and juniper on a mantel, the dining table, staircase banister, over a doorway, etc.
- [ ] Incorporate birch twigs, winterberry and silver-covered pinecones for additional sparkle in the green decor
- [ ] Sweeten up your home with a few Christmas roses (that belong in the "hellebore" plant family)
- [ ] Also go for the classic red poinsettia plant to decorate tabletops
- [ ] Add seasonal scents with candles and decorative cinnamon sticks
- [ ] Instead of the traditional red/green combo, consider incorporating metallic tones for plates, napkin holders, table scape decor, etc.
- [ ] Hang some oversized snowflakes
- [ ] Try putting two stacked wreaths on the front door instead of one
- [ ] Display holiday cards from your family/friends
- [ ] Provide bowls with Christmas treats in different rooms (on living room side table, the dinning table, in the entrance hallway, etc.)
- [ ] Dangle candy canes
- [ ] If you have a bar or bar cart, dress it up!
- [ ] Glue some shiny round ornaments together to create a christmas wreath
- [ ] Change out the traditional garland with paper bells to line your stair banister or mantel
- [ ] Offer a glass vase full of nuts, kumquats, cranberries and more fruity/nutty treats
- [ ] Use candles & flower vases instead of garland on the dining table, side table, mantel, etc.
- [ ] Use unexpected materials like feathers mixed in with the garland

- [ ] Hang tassels not just from windows, but also door knobs
- [ ] Incorporate candle-wreaths in your tablescapes
- [ ] Create a birch wreath
- [ ] Create a plaid backdrop for wall space
- [ ] Make a small ornament tree on sidetables
- [ ] Decorate the home with hanging family photos, like on the staircase banister
- [ ] Add some firewood, bits of garland and a few small christmas lights into a plant pot for a new way to bring the outdoors inside
- [ ] Turn wooden logs into candle holders
- [ ] Build a hot cocoa station
- [ ] Create a wreath with star anise
- [ ] Use fruit as tablescape accents, like pomegranates, apples, and oranges
- [ ] Hang a gingerbread garland
- [ ] Make crafty snowflake coasters out of felt
- [ ] Display a gingerbread house
- [ ] Display season phrases
- [ ] Make easy paper mache Christmas trees
