

Holiday Decor For Your Home

Plenty of ideas below for fun ways to decorate your home this season and spread the holiday cheer!

- Layer different greenery like pine, spruce and juniper on a mantel, the dining table, staircase banister, over a doorway, etc.
- Incorporate birch twigs, winterberry and silver-covered pinecones for additional sparkle in the green decor
- Sweeten up your home with a few Christmas roses (that belong in the "hellebore" plant family)
- Also go for the classic red poinsettia plant to decorate tabletops
- Add seasonal scents with candles and decorative cinnamon sticks
- Instead of the traditional red/green combo, consider incorporating metallic tones for plates, napkin holders, table scape decor, etc.
- Hang some oversized snowflakes
- Try putting two stacked wreaths on the front door instead of one
- Display holiday cards from your family/friends
- Provide bowls with Christmas treats in different rooms (on living room side table, the dining table, in the entrance hallway, etc.)
- Dangle candy canes
- If you have a bar or bar cart, dress it up!
- Glue some shiny round ornaments together to create a christmas wreath
- Change out the traditional garland with paper bells to line your stair banister or mantel
- Offer a glass vase full of nuts, kumquats, cranberries and more fruity/nutty treats
- Use candles & flower vases instead of garland on the dining table, side table, mantel, etc.
- Use unexpected materials like feathers mixed in with the garland
- Hang tassels not just from windows, but also door knobs
- Incorporate candle-wreaths in your tablescapes
- Create a birch wreath
- Create a plaid backdrop for wall space

- Make a small ornament tree on sidetables
- Decorate the home with hanging family photos, like on the staircase banister
- Add some firewood, bits of garland and a few small christmas lights into a plant pot for a new way to bring the outdoors inside
- Turn wooden logs into candle holders
- Build a hot cocoa station
- Create a wreath with star anise
- Use fruit as tablescape accents, like pomegranates, apples, and oranges
- Hang a gingerbread garland
- Make crafty snowflake coasters out of felt
- Display a gingerbread house
- Display season phrases
- Make easy paper mache Christmas trees
- Repurpose a cake stand to display holiday decor like ornaments, candles, small wreaths, etc.
