Proposal Weekend in Napa

My fiance pulled off the perfect engagement weekend in Napa. If you're planning on taking a trip to Napa, I've put together some of the things we did to help with your planning.

Thursday Morning

- [ ] Fly into San Francisco in the morning to avoid rush hour traffic and drive to Napa.(About an hour's drive)

Thursday Afternoon

- [ ] Check in, rest, and get some essentials for your room.
- [ ] Head to downtown Napa to Zuzu for dinner, it's tapas style dining.
- [ ] End the night with some after dinner drinks at Mercantile Social.

Friday Morning

- [ ] Go to Alexis Baking Company for breakfast- Order the Lemon Ricotta Pancakes (must have).
- [ ] Drive along route 29 and stop at as many wineries as you can.
- [ ] Stop at the Napa Valley sign along route 29 and take a picture.
- [ ] Visit Robert Mondavi and Raymond Vineyard. (Share tastings, so you can get more of a variety).
- [ ] Do a guided tour at Castello di Amorosa- Well worth it, the castle is gorgeous.
- [ ] Head back to Napa to wind down.
- [ ] Have dinner at Cordeiro's bar and grill, say yes to the Caesar salad you won't be disappointed.

Saturday

- [ ] Start your morning with the hot air balloon ride at Napa Valley balloons; gorgeous views, remember to dress in layers it gets chilly. (The Fiance proposed here)
- [ ] Enjoy a post-flight Champagne brunch at Domaine Chandon.
- [ ] Head to Sterling Vineyard- the air tram is cool and the vineyard is gorgeous. (We did a self guided tour) .
- [ ] Get lunch at Bounty hunter before leaving the Napa valley area.
- [ ] Head to San Francisco in the evening- We wanted to visit both cities on the trip. We scheduled our flight for Sunday night so that we could spend Saturday night and all day in San Fran.
