

21 Ways to Celebrate Galentine's Day With Your Favorite Girls

Galentine's Day falls on February 13th. Galentine's Day is a day to celebrate friendship, love, and support with your favorite Gals. FUN FACT: In 2010, in an episode from Park and Recreation, Leslie created the day, Galentine's Day as a day to celebrate the joys of female friendship.

- 1 Book appointments to get manicures and pedicures. Find a nail salon that is BYOB.
- 2 Pinterest is full of the best sweet treat recipes. Bake something yummy with your girls.
- 3 Plan a movie night with your girls. There are so many cheesy romantic comedy flicks. You can also create a popcorn or candy bar for your friends.
- 4 Plan a staycation with your girls. Some hotels are even offering packages just for Galentine's Day
- 5 Love wine? Invite your girls over for a wine tasting. Each girl can bring their favorite bottle of wine. Head to Trader Joe's to pick up some cheeses and crackers, and maybe a sweet treat to pair.
- 6 If you live somewhere warm. Lucky! Pack a picnic with rose of course, and head to the beach or the pool.
- 7 Host a cooking party. Find a recipe you have never tried and have each one of your friends bring an ingredient or two. You can even make cute little recipe cards for them to take home.
- 8 Book spa appointments, followed by a fancy lunch.
- 9 Sweat it out. Find a fun workout class or yoga class to go to with your girls. You should definitely go to brunch after.
- 10 Be a tourist in your own city. I live in Chicago and I love to explore the city. You can head to my blog to get some ideas on what to see and do.
- 11 Have a shopping day with your girls. Find a little cafe to enjoy a coffee or hot chocolate and catch up.
- 12 Invite the girls over and plan a vacation somewhere for you all to go to in the next few months. Make a plan on where to go and how to save for your trip.
- 13 If you already have the cash plan a girls trip now. South Beach is very affordable right now. It's one of my favorite spots.

- 14 This is one of my favorite things to do. Host a traditional afternoon tea party.
- 15 If you love crafts. Find a fun DIY project on Pinterest and invite the girls over.
- 16 If you love to play games. Host a game night. You could even go to a vintage store to pick up an old game you used to play. Anyone remember Dream Phone?
- 17 Get all dressed up and pick a new restaurant to try. Sushi is always fun with a group or girls. Or even a fancy steak dinner?
- 18 Getting a blow out can be so relaxing. If you are planning a night out or a fun dinner, it's great to have fab hair. Make appointments for you and your girlfriends.
- 19 Have you ever gotten your make up done? Book appointments at either Sephora or Nordstrom and get your makeup done for free (with a $50 product purchase). Go somewhere after for fancy cocktails.
- 20 If you want to save $$$$. You can always plan a spa night or makeover night at your house. Sephora and Target have some great masks and spa products.
- 21 If your bestie doesn't live close. Send them a little care package to show them how much you miss them.

Head to the GGC Blog for more! <https://goo.gl/ojrmNL>

Created By A Girl's Guide to Chicago - GirlsGuideChicago.com