Chicago Spring Bucket List 2018 (Not For Tourist Edition)

Spring is finally here! After what has felt like a really long winter, here are some things you can look forward to doing in the city this spring season.

- Go to Cubs opening day on April 9th
- Be one of the first to eat at Smoke Daddy, Big Star, or enjoy a spiked milkshake at West Town Bakery at the new Zachary Hotel in Wrigley.
- Enjoy your first drink of the season on your favorite patio or on the Riverwalk
- Visit Jackson Park and see the cherry blossoms
- After going to Jackson Park stop by Stony Island Arts Bank to see their amazing library
- Plan a donut tour around the city (walk to each location) https://goo.gl/AZRCnf
- Walk or bike the lakefront to or from downtown
- Get tickets to the Chicago Flower & Garden Show at Navy
- Go to Baconfest the weekend of April 6th
- Enjoy cocktails on your favorite rooftop or try a new rooftop https://goo.gl/b6hgSH
- Dine at the new The Lakefront Restaurant and maybe even a show at Theater on the Lake
- Attend a spring wine festival https://goo.gl/RyFtcQ
- Spend Saturday morning at the farmer's market starting May 13th
- Plan a Chicago Shopping Tour and shop for your spring wardrobe https://goo.gl/G223Qs
- See the tulips along Michigan Avenue
  - Enjoy a picnic in the park or along the lakefront

Take your	dog to t	the dog	beach at	Montrose	Beach

Visit a local flower shop in Chicago and treat yourself to some spring flowers

Created By A Girl's Guide to Chicago - GirlsGuideChicago.com