Chicago Spring Bucket List 2018 (Not For Tourist Edition)

Spring is finally here! After what has felt like a really long winter, here are some things you can look forward to doing in the city this spring season.

Go to Cubs opening day on April 9th
Be one of the first to eat at Smoke Daddy, Big Star, or enjoy a spiked milkshake at West Town Bakery at the new Zachary Hotel in Wrigley.
Enjoy your first drink of the season on your favorite patio or on the Riverwalk
Visit Jackson Park and see the cherry blossoms
After going to Jackson Park stop by Stony Island Arts Bank to see their amazing library
Plan a donut tour around the city (walk to each location) https://goo.gl/AZRCnf
Walk or bike the lakefront to or from downtown
Get tickets to the Chicago Flower & Garden Show at Navy
Go to Baconfest the weekend of April 6th
Enjoy cocktails on your favorite rooftop or try a new rooftop https://goo.gl/b6hgSH
Dine at the new The Lakefront Restaurant and maybe even a show at Theater on the Lake
Attend a spring wine festival https://goo.gl/RyFtcQ
Spend Saturday morning at the farmer's market starting May 13th
Plan a Chicago Shopping Tour and shop for your spring wardrobe https://goo.gl/G223Qs
See the tulips along Michigan Avenue
Enjoy a picnic in the park or along the lakefront

Take your dog to the dog beach at Montrose Beach
Visit a local flower shop in Chicago and treat yourself to some spring flowers
	Created By A Girl's Guide to Chicago - GirlsGuideChicago.com	