7 TRAVEL BOOKS WORTH READING RIGHT NOW

I spend a lot of time on buses, trains, and planes and use that time to devour books so, without further ado, here are seven books worth your time:

- [ ] All Over the Place by Geraldine DeRuiter (http://amzn.to/2vkCeFY)
- [ ] The Worrier's Guide to the End of the World by Torre DeRoche (http://amzn.to/2vjrmlh)
- [ ] Island of the Lost: Shipwrecked at the Edge of the World by Joan Druett (http://amzn.to/2vj7h4M)
- [ ] Dispatches from Pluto by Richard Grant (http://amzn.to/2vESQt2)
- [ ] The Palace of the Snow Queen: Winter Travels in Lapland by Barbara Sjoholm (http://amzn.to/2vmsgCm)
- [ ] The Not-Quite States of America by Doug Mack (http://amzn.to/2vmZtNK)
- [ ] The Caliph's House: A Year in Casablanca by Tahir Shah (http://amzn.to/2evhB4p)

Make and Share Free Checklists
checkli.com