Informational Writing: Self- Assessment Checklist

- [ ] I hooked my reader and introduced my topic.
- [ ] I wrote facts and details about each sub-topic.
- [ ] I used transition words to add and connect my facts and details.
- [ ] I gave definitions for important words.
- [ ] I organized my writing with headings and/or a table of contents.
- [ ] I wrapped up my writing with a closing statement.
- [ ] I used adjectives and adverbs to add more details to my writing and make it interesting.
- [ ] I used the word wall and broke down my words to give my best spelling.
- [ ] I used punctuation marks at the end of every sentence and commas when I make a list of 3 or more items or have a natural pause.
- [ ] I used punctuation marks at the end of every sentence and commas when I make a list of 3 or more items or have a natural pause.
- [ ] I used capital letters at the beginning of a new sentence, the word “I”, and for proper nouns.

Make and Share Free Checklists
checkli.com