Singapore travel checklist

To do

| Passport: Is it up to date? It must be valid for at least six months from your date of entry into Singapore. |
|--|
| Return or onward ticket: Australian tourists need this to be able to enter Singapore visa-free. |
| Vaccinations: Have you checked whether you need any shots? |
| Travel insurance: Are you covered? (See our travel insurance reviews) |
| Safety: Have you registered your travel plans with smartraveller and checked the latest safety advice on the region you're travelling to? |
| Money: Have you told your bank you're going overseas and do you know how you'll be paying for things in Singapore? (See our travel money guide) |
| Accommodation: Have you booked accommodation for at least the first night? |
| Arrival: Do you know how you'll get from the airport to your accommodation? |
| Transport: Do you know how you'll get around Singapore, and do you need to pre-book any tickets? |
| Driving: If you're planning on driving, do you have the correct licence and are you familiar with the local road rules? |
| Phone and internet: Have you switched off data roaming and voicemail? If you're planning to use a Singaporean or travel SIM, is your phone unlocked? |
| Apps: Have you downloaded offline maps or travel apps? |
| Medication: Have you checked that your regular medication is legal to bring into Singapore? (See warning below). |
