Singapore travel checklist

To do

Passport: Is it up to date? It must be valid for at least six months from your date of entry into Singapore.
Return or onward ticket: Australian tourists need this to be able to enter Singapore visa-free.
Vaccinations: Have you checked whether you need any shots?
Travel insurance: Are you covered? (See our travel insurance reviews)
Safety: Have you registered your travel plans with smartraveller and checked the latest safety advice on the region you're travelling to?
Money: Have you told your bank you're going overseas and do you know how you'll be paying for things in Singapore? (Secour travel money guide)
Accommodation: Have you booked accommodation for at least the first night?
Arrival: Do you know how you'll get from the airport to your accommodation?
Transport: Do you know how you'll get around Singapore, and do you need to pre-book any tickets?
Driving: If you're planning on driving, do you have the correct licence and are you familiar with the local road rules?
Phone and internet: Have you switched off data roaming and voicemail? If you're planning to use a Singaporean or travel SIM, is your phone unlocked?
Apps: Have you downloaded offline maps or travel apps?
Medication: Have you checked that your regular medication is legal to bring into Singapore? (See warning below)

Tickets
Money (cash and cards)
Passport
A copy of your travel insurance details
A list of emergency contacts at home and in Singapore
Chargers and a power adapter (type G for Singapore)
Mosquito repellent and mosquito-proof clothing (mosquito-borne disea	ases are a risk in Singapore)
Any regular medication (in original packaging, with prescriptions)	Make and Share Free Checklists checkli.com