Noah Kagan's 2018 Summer Reading List

- [ ] Rise and Kill First- Whether you are pro or anti Israel this book has insanely interesting insights about Israel's targeted assassinations.
- [ ] The Art of Gathering - First book I've ever seen about how to organize and make epic events. Lots of good ideas on how to organize meetups especially. Thanks Nick Gray for the recommendation.
- [ ] Everybody Lies - Super fascinating data studies, like if rich or poor people are more likely to make it to the NBA. Or, if parents like boy children over girls. Hat tip to Marc Andreessen.
- [ ] Evicted - Holy cow. Interesting thoughts about the eviction problem going on in America. Real life stories. This one came from Bill Gates' best books list.
- [ ] Paris in the Present Tense - A great fiction story about an uninteresting guy and his wild adventures in historical and present Paris. Hat tip Tyson Cole.
