Free Download: Corporate Culture Checklist

A recent study revealed that a third of employees plan on quitting their job in the next 12 months. The leading causes are corporate culture, better work-life balance, lack of empathy from bosses, and a desire to find more meaningful work. So, it's time to change, starting with a new corporate culture.

Schedule a meeting with each employee
Prepare to listen and take notes
Ask about their happiness
Ask if their job is meaningful
Ask how to improve the corporate culture
Ask if you've provided the best technology to get the job done right
Ask about their work-life balance, and if it can be improved
Ask what they think about remote work and flex hours
Ask if they feel valuable at work.
Ask if they love their job and the company
