

Teachers In-Depth Content Knowledge: Definition & Checklist

Definition

- ☐ "Pedagogical content knowledge identifies the distinctive bodies of knowledge for teaching. It represents the blending of content and pedagogy into an understanding of how particular topics, problems or issues are organized, represented, and adapted to the diverse interests and abilities of learners, and presented for instruction. Pedagogical content knowledge is the category most likely to distinguish the understanding of the content specialist from that of the pedagogue"

Checklist of Observable Behaviors

1. Comprehension: To teach is to understand.

- ☐ Purposes
- ☐ Subject-matter structures
- ☐ Ideas within and outside the discipline

2. Transformation: Comprehended ideas must be transformed in some manner if they are to be taught.

- ☐ Preparation (of the given text material)
- ☐ Representation of the ideas in the form of analogies, metaphors
- ☐ Instructional selections from among an array of teaching methods and models

- ☐ Adaptation to the characteristics of the students
- ☐ Tailoring the adaptations to the specific students in the classroom

3. Instruction
