5-Ingredient Meat Recipes

These beef, pork, and lamb entrees are about as easy as you'll find anywhere. And they're delicious too.

Pork Tenderloin with Balsamic Onion-Fig Relish Caramelized onion and figs bring out the natural sweetness in pork here. Try the relish with chicken or beef as well. Pantry Checklist: Pork tenderloin (1 lb), Dried Mission figs, Balsamic vinegar, Low-sodium soy sauce, Onion Prep: 4 minutes Cook: 10 minutes Other: 5 minutes Skirt Steak with Corn and Red Pepper Puree Red Bell Pepper gets used two tasty ways: as a vegetable in the corn sauté and as a pureed sauce for the plate. Fresh corn is not just sweet; it has a surprising hit of umami intensity. Pantry Checklist: Fish Sauce, Red Bell Pepper, Green Onions, Skirt Steak, Corn Kernels Hands-on: 30 minutes Total: 1 hour, 30 minutes

A simple citrus marinade plus a quick sear yields significantly more flavor than you might think. Of course, a finishing balsamic drizzle is always welcome.

Orange-Balsamic Lamb Chops

Pantry Checklist: Olive Oil, Grated Orange Rind, Orange Juice, Lamb Rib Chops, Balsamic Vinegar
Grilled Steak with Pineapple Rice
With just five ingredients, this protein-packed meal comes together in a flash. Soy sauce amps up the flavor of beef tenderloin fillets, which pineapple lends tropical flavor to brown rice.
Pantry Checklist: Lower-Sodium Soy Sauce, Beef Tenderloin Fillets, Can Pineapple, Slices in Juice, Green Onions, 2 Packages PreCooked Brown Rice
Beef Tenderloin Steaks with Red Wine-Mushroom Sauce
Mushrooms add a savory flavor that makes beef taste even meatier, while red wine brings acidity for balance. Splurge on great steaks in this simple recipe; with so few ingredients, the meat shines through.
Pantry Checklist: Beef tenderloin steaks (4-4oz), Baby portobello mushrooms, Red wine, Butter, Fresh rosemary
Prep: 1 minute
Cook: 10 minutes Make and Share Free Checklists checkli.com