A list of defunk methods for entrepreneurs

Sometimes entrepreneurs find themselves in a funk. Here's a list of my favorite ways to defunk yourself when you're having one of those moments.

- ✓ Make a really short list of the shit you need to do and complete it (5 tasks, max)
- $\checkmark$  Go for a super long walk
- ✓ Sweat it out in the gym. Run or workout and get the endorphins flowing.
- Escape into a movie theatre where there is no distraction. No Netflix.
- ✓ Watch an inspiring show like The Profit or Shark Tank.
- ✓ Shower, cleanup, get a haircut and put on something nice. You often feel how you look.
- ✓ Listen to startup podcast like How I built This or The Four Hour Workweek.
- ✓ Coffee, espresso works best.
- ✓ Think in silence.
- ✓ Make an appreciation list of all the wonderful things in your life.
- $\checkmark$  Look up the word "perseverance", and what Steve Jobs said about it.
