5 tips where to invest your time and start evolving

- [ ] 1. Learning web-development. Even though you have never dreamed of becoming a professional web-developer, getting familiar with its principles is becoming more and more essential for people who intend to interact with computer and internet for work
- [ ] 2. Learning how to promote social media account. It might seem silly from the first sight, but if you Google how much money bloggers make, I bet you will be impressed
- [ ] 3. Learning how to write a scholarship essay https://essay4students.com/blog/scholarship-essay/. Many students have no idea how to do it, so you might help them by becoming an expert in this field
- [ ] 4. Learning how to become a Google assessor. Google is a giant in web-search field, however they need a lot of people who will help them to assess Search results manually
- [ ] 5. Learning the blogging. It is a win-win option of all times, whatever will happen in the future, the world will always need bloggers who are ready to deliver freshest news and trends

Make and Share Free Checklists
checkli.com