10 Bad Ideas When Buying A Home

Buy a place without walking through it first
Forgoing an inspection
Not using an official contract from a local real estate association
Not getting disclosures from a seller
Giving earnest money directly to the seller
Not knowing all the costs associated with purchasing a home

Condominiums

	Forget to ask about any special assessments or upcoming capital improvement projects
(Not looking at the finances of the association

Single Family Homes

Look past major structural issues
Forgetting to do your due diligence on the history of the home