Don't Check Your Email

- ☐ Instead, check them before you go to work, either at home or on commute.

Start With A Planning Session

- ☐ Write down all of your tasks for the day, and take a few minutes to distinguish between what feels urgent and what's actually important.

Create A Plan Of Attack

- ☐ You'll be more inclined to start a task if you've give yourself a concrete plan.

Prioritize Your List

- ☐ Do the things that take the most willpower and focus first. since these Functions wear down as the day goes on. Tackle them while mind is still fresh.
