

Interview Mistakes

10 Interview Mistakes Do You Want To Boost Your Career?

Arriving Too Early

- ☐ Do not arrive more than 10 minutes early. It stresses out and annoys your interviewer.

Not Expressing Your Interest

- ☐ Always close the interview by expressing your interest and asking what the next steps are.

Being Rude To The Gatekeeper

- ☐ The receptionist is your first opportunity to make a good impression. Don't underestimate their power.

Interrupting The Interviewer

- ☐ Don't let your nerves get the best of you and talk over your interviewer.

Negative Attitude

- ☐ Complaining, whining, and arrogance will get you nowhere.

Forgetting To Sell Yourself

☐ You are there to sell yourself. be sure to close the sale.

Focusing On Yourself Too Much

☐ Job interviews are never about you...they are about serving the needs Of the company.

Getting Too Attached To Results

☐ Putting too much importance on the results of the interview will increase your stress. It's just an interview!

Forgetting To Breathe

☐ When we are nervous we tend to breathe shallow. Be sure to breathe deep. it will help you to relax and feed the brain with oxygen.

Failing To Send A Thank You

☐ Be sure you send your interviewer a thank you email within 24 hours.

Make and Share Free Checklists
checkli.com