Challenges In Artificial Intelligence

Artificial Intelligence is a computer program that performs special functions for the human brain such as speech recognition, speech recognition, and decision making. Some or all of these factors, such as artificial intelligence, are already in use around the world.

Building Trust

- [ ] The working Of AI lies on the technological side, a lot Of which people do not trust and understand

AI Human Interface

- [ ] With advancement Of AI rising, businesses lack skilled professionals who can work with this technology

Investment

- [ ] AI is an expensive tech ology that not eve owner or manager can invest money into

Software Malfunction

- [ ] With machines & algorithms controlling AI, it is difficult t04 identify the cause of mistakes and malfunctions

Can Replace only Certain Tasks

- [ ] Like any other technology, AI also has its own limitations; it simply cannot replace all tasks.

High Expectations

- [ ] Not everyone understands the functioning and might also have very high expectations of functioning

Make and Share Free Checklists checkli.com