10 Remote Learning Practices to Avoid

A Principal's Reflections: 10 Remote Learning Practices to Avoid

- [ ] Piling on too much work
- [ ] Posting assignments with no plan for feedback
- [ ] Providing just digital options
- [ ] Grading (avoid this altogether as learners are in inequitable situations)
- [ ] Relying solely on low-level worksheets, packets, or Teachers Pay Teachers materials
- [ ] Thinking that you have to abide by a traditional school day schedule
- [ ] Forcing teachers to follow a traditional schedule while working remotely
- [ ] Using video tools in violation of FERPA
- [ ] Posting videos of pictures of kids learning online without proper consent
- [ ] Covering the entire curriculum and every standard
