5 Best Team Management Tools

Whether small, medium, large; all businesses are embracing remote workplace environment. Even startups are using this new business culture. So, we came up with the list Of following tools that will help you manage your remote team effectively!

BASECAMP

- [ ] Using this tool, project managers can delegate work, set strict deadlines, review status and evaluate what is still pending.
- [ ] The check-in feature, "big button" notifies the network about the to-do list.

SLACK

- [ ] You can use this tool to divide the roles among your team. Besides sharing information in large groups, users can chat in a private window by direct messaging.
- [ ] Slack makes it effortless to search for information and receive filtered results.

TRELLO

- [ ] Since the drop and drag interface is simple to use and learn, Trello works efficiently as a remote management tool. The customizable graphics display can be broken down into different phases.
- [ ] Members using this tool can edit, add and move the items on the board.

DROPBOX

- [ ] When something is dropped in the Dropbox folder, it is available to all users to access.

- [ ] Dropbox is an ideal platform for backing up data. If the computer crashes or the smartphone is lost, you can use Dropbox to access those files.

GOTO MEETING

- [ ] Using this tool you can easily share presentations, share product demos, and private data.
- [ ] It helps in managing virtual teams with the help of quick download option for reports/ presentations, speedy meeting setup and instinctive user interface for coordination within seconds.

Make and Share Free Checklists
checkli.com