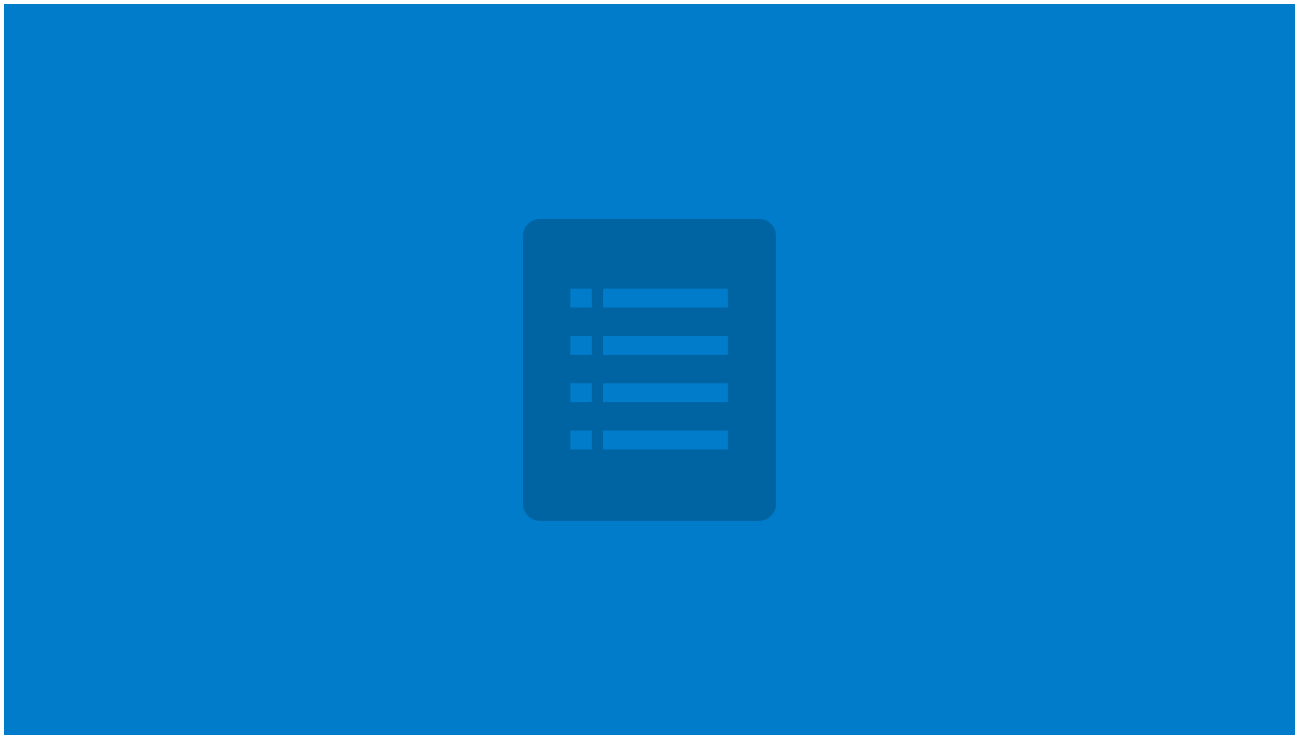
Seven Steps Toward Developing A Remarkable Team

Become a confident, strategic coach who provides maximum value to your clients.



- [ ] Assemble a team of doers. If a person selected for the team turns out not to be a good fit. take quick action to correct the choice.
- [ ] Set priorities, and make sure all team members have a common understanding of them.
- [ ] Let the team do their job. Avoid micromanaging.
- [ ] knock down barriers, such as political and resource obstructions, that are keeping team members from accomplishing their goals.
- [ ] Express gratitude frequently for work well done.
- [ ] Express gratitude frequently for work well done.
- [ ] Take the heat for any team mistakes without transmitting heat down the chain.
- [ ] Sit back and "bask in the glory" of the team's accomplishments.

Make and Share Free Checklists

checkli.com