

Antiracist Starter Checklist

A starting point for non-POC to take action to end racism

You're either racist or antiracist; there's no such thing as 'not racist.' Even inaction (simply being 'not racist') in the face of racism is, in fact, a form of racism. The idea of an innocent bystander is wishful thinking instead, there's only racism and antiracism.

-Dr. Ibram Kendi

(editors note: this is a starting point and by no means an exhaustive list. If you check off all items, continue to seek knowledge and action against racist policies and encourage others to join you. Compiled by Nicole àBeckett, SameSide. For any additions or comments email info@onsameside.com)

ACKNOWLEDGE AND ACCEPT THAT SYSTEMIC RACISM EXISTS IN AMERICA

Slavery created a legacy of oppression for Black people that is woven into our institutions today – from education and health care to the criminal legal system. We need structural reform to dismantle the deep-seated racism and inequity that permeates our institutions – including law enforcement.

Say out loud: "Black Lives Matter"

This seems simple but the first step in using your voice is using your voice. When you speak out loud, it is affirming in your own voice, what you believe in.

SUPPORT CANDIDATES OF COLOR

It's not enough to demand justice for a week and simply move on. If we want to make real change in this country, that change needs to be reflected in our leaders, starting at the local level. Compiled by Marie Claire with the support of: Higher Heights for America, Vote Run Lead, Emerge America and the LGBTQ Victory Fund.

I educated myself on the candidates of color in my area

UNDERSTAND THE POWER OF MY DISTRICT ATTORNEY

District attorneys (DAs) are more than just prosecutors. The district attorney's job is to seek justice in criminal cases, work to prevent crime, and serve as a leader in the diverse communities they represent. The DA is also an elected official.

I watched the "Meet Your DA" video by ACLU
Watch this short video with John Legend about the role of the District Attorney in your city <https://youtu.be/pPm-lkiSDyl>

I know the questions I should ask about my DA (by #VoteQuadrant)
