30 Days Accessibility Testing
By Mott Obee ond Alon Fridman Woisbord

- ☐ Learn about the diversity of disabilities and the effects of aging
- ☐ Use a tool like WAVE to scan a web page for accessibility problems.
- ☐ Share your favourite accessibility testing tool.
- ☐ Research the benefits of inclusive design.
- ☐ Read the 12 guidelines of WCAG 2.0. Write o short post on one of them.
- ☐ Learn about assistive technologies, and share one you liked (hardware).
- ☐ Unplug your mouse, leave the touchpad alone, and navigate using the keyboard.
- ☐ Read a book about accessibility.
- ☐ Disable images in the browser. Con you understand the page?
- ☐ Test with a screen reader and share one useful tip.
- ☐ Turn your screen off and rely on a screen reader.
- ☐ Read an article about accessibility and share it with someone.
- ☐ Watch a video about accessibility and share it with someone.
- ☐ Find a problem thot might affect someone who is deaf .
- ☐ Find o problem that might affect someone who is colourblind .
- ☐ Find o problem that might affect someone who can't use their hands.
- ☐ Find a problem that might affect someone with dyslexia.

- [ ] Use a tool to test for colour contrast problems.
- [ ] Find 5 accessibility experts to follow Twitter.
- [ ] Write a simple accessibility checklist.
- [ ] Look for invisible keyboard focus when tabbing through a page.
- [ ] Learn why semantic HTML is important.
- [ ] Find missing semantic information (e.g. headers, landmarks, links, and buttons).
- [ ] Learn about accessibility low in your country.
- [ ] Explore W3C's Before and After demonstration.
- [ ] Find an accessibility issue on a website, and report ii.
- [ ] Learn how to use your mobile device screen reader.
- [ ] Download and test a word document for accessibility issues.
- [ ] Find 3 accessibility issues without using on evaluation tool.
- [ ] Review the complexity of a website's content with the Hemingway opp.