What NOT to do when buying a home

There are plenty of things you need to do when buying a home. These are the things you should absolutely NOT do.

$\bigcup$	Change jobs/careers/companies
	Veto a potential home over an easily fixable item

- Make a large purchase while under contract such as a new car or expensive furniture
- Dilly-dally on decision making or getting important documents together
- Freak out over small items in an inspection report
- Back out for no reason
- Look for a home when you aren't pre-approved yet
- Use a real estate agent not named Andrew Hasdal :)
